

What is art?

How would you describe an artwork to someone who can't see?

Is it more important that art makes you think something or feel something?

Can we learn from art?

Does a work of art need to be beautiful?

What would the world be like without art?

Can art contribute to society?

